Scope of the Journal

IJCA is a peer-reviewed international journal publishing high quality, original manuscripts concerned with critical accounting and related issues. Contributions can be of a theoretical or empirical nature. IJCA targets scholars from both academia and the professional accounting community. Papers examine emerging trends in critical accounting and fast-changing concerns faced by corporations, government and regulators from a comprehensive range of areas.

Contents

IJCA publishes paper-submissions to the editor, and papers arising from special issues (for instance, focus on a current topic, and/or on the exposition of particular national traditions or practices) and conferences.

Subject coverage:
The primary theme of IJCA is to embrace all approaches to critical work. Specific examples of topics include, but are not limited to:

- Auditing (and the subprime crisis)
- Backdating and stock options
- The political economy of accounting
- Accounting’s implication in the exercise of power
- Accounting’s role in international capital markets
- Reporting - impact on stock market instabilities
- Accounting/auditing and money laundering
- Regulation of national and international banking
- Management accounting and the organisation of the labour process
- The accountability of government functions
- Accounting (history) as social memory
- Accounting and democracy in the workplace
- Accounting’s adjudicative function in international relations (e.g. Third World debt)
- Accounting for gender and class conflicts

What the editors say about IJCA

An exciting new outlet for rigorous scholarship in the burgeoning field of critical accounting.
Dr. Charles Elad
University of Westminster, UK

It is about time to hear the suppressed voices of dissent and debates of their oppressed truths in a new unapologetic critical accounting journal.
Prof. George Mickhail
University of Wollongong, Australia

At a time when accounting firms run the governments of many developing countries a truly international journal like this one becomes a vital weapon.
